

What do I need to show at an Equine Canada Sanctioned Morgan Show??

EC Sanctioned Competition	Bronze Competition	Silver Competition
	License required for Rider/Driver and Owner or Lessee. Exceptions: Children under 10 years of age entering classes for children who have not reached the age of ten years at the beginning of the calendar year; handlers in line classes.	License required for Rider/Driver and Owner or Lessee. Exceptions: Children under 10 years of age entering classes for children who have not reached the age of ten years at the beginning of the calendar year; handlers in line classes.
EC Sport Licence	Bronze licence may be purchased through Equine Canada or at a Bronze level competition. ($45 Bronze licence fee less $25 discount for ON, MB, BC and NB provincial members)	Silver license may be purchased through Equine Canada. ($85 Silver licence fee less $25 discount for ON, MB, BC and NB provincial members)
No Sport License	May be purchased at Bronze level competitions.	Temporary Sport License - $30 (points will not count toward Breed Sport Canada Horse of the Year Awards Program)
Wrong Level of Sport License	n/a	Single Event Upgrade - $15
Mid Year Change in Sport License	n/a	Silver from Bronze - $40
Provincial Membership	Required for ON, MB, BC and NB Residents	Required for ON, MB, BC and NB Residents
Passports	Not required, registration papers only	Not Required, registration papers only
CMHA Membership	Required for all EC Morgan shows, CMHA Medal Classes, Youth Challenge and CMHA National Awards Program	Required for all EC Morgan shows, CMHA Medal Classes, Youth Challenge and CMHA National Awards Program

Please refer to Equine Canada General Regulations for additional information.*